

Chemistry Day in Chicagoland

- Learn how knowledge of chemistry makes a better living!
- Discover science as a career!

Free
Admission

The Public is Invited to Chemistry Day:

Saturday 15 October 2005, 9:30 am to 3 pm

DePaul University

Lincoln Park Campus

O'Connell Hall

Chicago, Illinois

FUN AND LEARNING ALL DAY (ALL GRADES, COLLEGE, AND ADULT)

- Contests and Hands-on Fun for Kids of all Ages
- Chemistry Demonstrations
- Exhibits from Industry, Academia, and Government Agencies all Day
- Poetry and Poster-Making Contests
- Featured Speakers
- Glass Blowing Demonstration

Location and Parking: See map on back

See Details at www.chicagoacs.org

*Sponsored by: American Chemical Society (ACS), Chicago Section,
Phone: (847) 647-8405
&
DePaul University*

Scouts: Earn A Youth Activities Badge

Wheelchair accessible

Chemistry Day Location at DePaul University

Rapid Transit Lines

There are three Chicago Transit Authority (CTA) rapid transit lines that service the Lincoln Park Campus. All stop at the Fullerton Avenue station.

- (1) The Red Line (Howard/Dan Ryan) crosses the city from north (Howard Street 7600 North) to south (95th Street and the Dan Ryan Expressway). There are several downtown Red Line subway stops located along State Street.
- (2) The Brown Line (Ravenswood) services the north and the near northwest areas of the city. In the downtown area, several stops are available along the Loop El
- (3) The Purple Line does not operate on weekends.

CTA Buses

These buses stop near the Lincoln Park Campus:

- #8 - Halsted Street: to and from 79th Street and Broadway.
- #11- Lincoln Avenue: to and from Devon/Kedzie and North/Clark.
- #37- Sedgwick/Ogden: to and from Fullerton/Sheffield and Cermak/Pulaski.
- #74- Fullerton Avenue: to and from the Brickyard Mall and Lincoln/Webster.

Metra Train Station

Take public transportation from the Metra stations to the Lincoln Park Campus. The Brown Line (Ravenswood) is recommended.

Chemistry Day: O'Connell Hall

